

About this Job

Work with a network of government agencies, businesses, and nonprofits who are creating policies to promote healthy, sustainable, resilient food systems in Wisconsin.

Duties involve:

- Researching policy issues in food, agriculture, and health systems in Wisconsin
- Attending periodic policy planning meetings in Madison, Wisconsin
- Meeting with policy advocates, including legislators, staffers, nonprofits, administrators, researchers, etc.
- Writing up reports from meetings
- Attending weekly team meetings to update WLFN team on your progress

8-24 hours per week. We are willing to be flexible on the internship start and end dates, as well as the hours worked each week.

Benefits of this internship opportunity include:

- Building your political capital
- Building your resume
- Making connections with key food, farming, and health systems leaders in Wisconsin
- Making a difference toward more sustainable, healthy, and resilient food and farming systems in Wisconsin!

Location:

Much of the work will be self-guided, and therefore you may work remotely. Weekly supervisor and team meetings can be conducted via video conference or in person in Madison, Platteville, or Richland Center locations. We are flexible according to your location and preferences!

About Wisconsin Local Food Network

The Wisconsin Local Food Network engages, connects, and empowers local, regional, and state organizations and individuals to build sustainable, equitable, and resilient food systems.

We envision vibrant local and regional food systems in Wisconsin that nourish the health and well-being of Wisconsin communities, conserve and enhance the natural resource base, and provide economic livelihood for a wide diversity of sustainable Wisconsin farmers and food businesses.